Earl of Loudon

HIS Majeſty, at His firſt coming into the Council, was this Day pleaſed to Declare, That underſtanding that the Law requires He ſhould, at his Acceſſion to the Crown, Take and Subſcribe the Oath relating to the Security of the Church of Scotland, He was now ready to do it this firſt Opportunity; which His Majeſty was Graciouſly Pleaſed to do, according to the Forms uſed by the Law of Scotland, and Subſcribed Two Inſtruments thereof in the Preſence of the Lords of the Council, who Witneſſed the ſame: And His Majeſty was Pleaſed to Order that One of the ſaid Inſtruments be Tranſmitted to the Court of Seſſion, to be Recorded in the Books of Sederunt; and afterwards to be forthwith Lodged in the Publick Regiſter of Scotland: And that the other of them remain among the Records of the Council, and be Entred into the Council Book.

This Day his Royal Highneſs the Prince of Wales was, by His Majeſty's Command, introduced into the Privy-Council, where his Royal Highneſs took his Place at the Upper-end of the Board on His Majeſty's Right Hand.

This Day his Grace William Lord Archbiſhop of York, Daniel Earl of Nottingham, and Charles Lord Halifax, were, by His Majeſty's Command, Sworn Lords of His Majeſty's Moſt Honourable Privy Council, and took their Places at the Board accordingly.

His Majeſty having been Graciouſly Pleaſed to deliver the Great Seal of Great Britain to the Right Hon. William Lord Cowper, his Lordſhip this Day took the Oath of Chancellor of Great Britain.

His Majeſty was Pleaſed to Declare the Right Hon. Daniel Earl of Nottingham, Lord Preſident of the Council; As likewiſe to Appoint the Right Hon. Thomas Earl of Wharton, Lord Privy Seal, who took the Oath of the ſaid Office; and their Lordſhips then took their reſpective Places at the Board accordingly.

His Majeſty in Council was this Day Graciouſly Pleaſed to Declare the Right Hon. Charles Earl of Sunderland, Lord Lieutenant of His Majeſty's Kingdom of Ireland.

His Majeſty being this Day preſent in Council, was pleaſed to make the following Declaration, Viz.

'HAving in My Anſwers to the Addreſſes of 'both Houſes of Parliament, fully Ex'preſſed my Reſolution to defend the Religious 'and Civil Rights of all My Subjects, there re'mains very little for Me to ſay upon this Occa'ſion;

'Yet being willing to Omit no Opportunity of 'giving all poſſible Aſſurances to a People, who 'have already Deſerved ſo well of Me; I take this 'Occaſion alſo to Expreſs to you My firm Purpoſe 'to do all that is in My Power, for the Supporting 'and Maintaining the Churches of England and 'Scotland, as they are ſeverally by Law Eſtabliſh'ed; which, I am of Opinion, may be effectually 'done, without the leaſt impairing the Toleration 'allowed by Law to Proteſtant Diſſenters, ſo agree'able to Chriſtian Charity, and ſo neceſſary to the 'Trade and Riches of this Kingdom.

'The Good Effects of making Property ſecure 'are no where ſo clearly ſeen, and to ſo great a 'Degree, as in this happy Kingdom; and I Aſſure 'you, That there is not any among you ſhall more 'earneſtly endeavour the Preſervation of it than 'My Self.

Whereupon the Lords of the Council made it their humble Requeſt to His Majeſty, That this His Majeſty's moſt Gracious Declaration to their Lordſhips might be made Publick: Which His Majeſty was pleaſed to Order accordingly.

Edward Southwell.

St. James's.

St. James's, September 24.

The following Addreſs was Preſented to His Majeſty by the Reverend Dr. Gardiner, Vice-Chancellor, with ſeveral of the Heads of Houſes and the Proctors, introduced by his Grace the Duke of Ormonde, Chancellor of the Univerſity of Oxford; accompanied by the Right Hon. the Earl of Rocheſter their Steward, the Right Hon. William Bromley, Eſq; One of their Repreſentatives in Parliament; together with ſeveral Biſhops, Peers, and Gentlemen who had formerly been Members of the ſaid Univerſity.

To the KING's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Chancellor, Maſters, and Scholars of the Univerſity of Oxford.

May it pleaſe your moſt Excellent Majeſty,

THE inexpreſſible Loſs we have ſuſtained by the Death of our late Sovereign of Bleſſed Memory, would have been inſupportable, had not GOD, in his great Goodneſs to this Nation, ſupplied it to us by Your Majeſty's happy and quiet Acceſſion to the Throne.

With the Proſpect of this Bleſſing we comforted our ſelves, as often as we apprehended that Precious Life to be in Danger; for knowing the Sincerity of our own Hearts, we never ſuſpected that any Perſons would be ſo regardleſs of their Duty and of their Intereſt, as not to ſupport with the utmoſt Zeal that Succeſſion to which they were bound by the moſt ſolemn Oaths, and on which the Preſervation of our Religion, Laws and Liberties, did next under GOD ſo manifeſtly depend. Our Expectations, our Wiſhes, and our Prayers, have been anſwer'd by that Unanimity with which Your Subjects have Recognized Your Majeſty's undoubted Right, that Impatience they have expreſſed to ſee Your Royal Perſon in the actual Poſſeſſion of Your Throne, and themſelves Happy under the Influence of Your Government.

We of this Place ſhould entertain a leſs dutiful Senſe than we ought to have of Your Majeſty's Grace and Goodneſs, if we did not with all humble Aſſurance promiſe our ſelves as large a Share of Your Royal Favour under Your auſpicious Reign, as our Famous Univerſities, the Seats of Learning and Schools of Loyalty, have ever enjoy'd in the Times of any of Your Glorious Predeceſſors, their greateſt Patrons and Protectors.

That dutiful and conſtant Affection to the Monarchy for which Your Loyal Univerſity of Oxford hath always been Eminent, hath procured to us many valuable Privileges from Your Royal Anceſtors; which we ſhall think our ſelves Unworthy any longer to enjoy, than while we imitate the Example of our Predeceſſors in being Faithful, and bearing true Allegiance to Your Sacred Majeſty and inſtilling the Chriſtian Principles of Obedience into the Minds of thoſe with whoſe Education we are entruſted.

We have always thought it the Indiſpenſable Duty of Subjects to Reverence the Higher Powers, out of a conſcientious Regard to the Authority wherewith they are Inveſted; but ſince Providence has again ſet over us a Wiſe and Religious Prince, adorn'd with Gifts and Graces which add Luſtre to the Royal Dignity, we think our ſelves obliged to pay a very particular Reſpect and Duty on account of Your Majeſty's Perſonal Worth, beſides the Reverence due to Your Sacred Character.

We ſhall always therefore pray with the greateſt Fervency, that on Your Royal Head the Crown may long Flouriſh, that Your Majeſty may long live to encourage Learning, to promote Piety, to protect the Church, and to preſerve the State; and that after the preſent Age has been bleſs'd with the Felicities of Your Reign, Your Majeſty may tranſmit the Government of a Willing and Obedient People, to Your Royal Progeny through all ſucceeding Generations.

To which Addreſs his Majeſty was pleaſed to return the following moſt gracious Anſwer.

I Am highly pleaſed with the Aſſurances of Duty ſo affectionately expreſs'd in your Addreſs. You could not have given Me a more ſatisfactory Inſtance of it, than in the Promiſes you have made to Inſtil good Principles into the Minds of the Youth committed to Your Charge; upon which the Proſperity of the Church and State will in this and in all ſucceeding Ages ſo much depend.

Your Concern for the Enjoyment of your Rights and Privileges cannot be greater than My Care ſhall be to preſerve them to you. So eminent a Nurſery of Learning, and ſo uſeful to the Church of England, which I Religiouſly reſolve to Support, ſhall never want My Favour and Protection.

The following Addreſs was preſented to His Majeſty by his Grace the Duke of Somerſet, Chancellor of the Univerſity of Cambridge.

To the KING's moſt Excellent Majeſty.

The humble Addreſs of the Chancellor, Maſters and Scholars of the Univerſity of Cambridge.

May it pleaſe Your moſt Sacred Majeſty,

WE Your Majeſty's moſt Dutiful and Loyal Subjects, the Chancellor, Maſters and Scholars of Your Univerſity of Cambridge, do moſt humbly beg Leave to approach Your Sacred Perſon, to Condole with Your Majeſty for the Death of our late moſt Gracious Sovereign Queen Anne, of Bleſſed Memory; whoſe Zeal for our Common Faith, Her Protection of our particular Privileges, Her Bounty to the Poorer Clergy, and more eſpecially Her Pious Care for the Peace and Welfare of all Her People, to the lateſt Poſterity, by following the Steps of Her Glorious Predeceſſor, in ſecuring the Succeſſion to theſe Realms in Your Majeſty's moſt Illuſtrious Houſe, will ever render Her Name Dear and Precious to all true Lovers of their Country, and of our moſt Holy Church and Religion.

At the ſame time, we cannot but adore the Divine Goodneſs, which has allay'd our Griefs, and diſpell'd our Fears by Your Majeſty's peaceable Acceſſion to the Imperial Crown of theſe Kingdoms, and Your ſafe Arrival to Your People; for which we humbly beg Leave, with the moſt Loyal and Dutiful Affection, to Congratulate Your Sacred Majeſty, and with the moſt ſincere and ardent Devotion to Bleſs Almighty GOD, who hath adorned You with ſuch Royal Vertues, as give us a ſure Proſpect of enjoying the greateſt Bleſſings under Your Majeſty's moſt auſpicious Reign.

As His Royal Highneſs the Prince, by the Stile and Title of Duke of Cambridge, hath done us a ſingular Honour, which gives him a peculiar Claim to our Duty, and lays upon us the ſtrongeſt Obligations of a moſt profound Reſpect to His Perſon; ſo we ſhall ever endeavour to render our ſelves Worthy of His Favour and Protection, by diſtinguiſhing our ſelves in all proper Inſtances of an extraordinary Zeal for Your Majeſty's Service, and the Honour of all Your Royal Houſe.

It would be unpardonable Folly, and downright Infatuation, if any of Your Majesty's Protestant Subjects should turn their Eyes to a Popish Pretender, who can never Reign over us, but to the certain Loss of every thing that ought to be Dear to us, either as we are Britons or Protestants. But then Your Majesty's most Loyal University must be utterly uncapable of a Thought so destructive to our most Holy Faith, so opposite to our happy Constitution both in Church and State, so full of Ingratitude to GOD, and of Injustice to Your Majesty, who by the Death of our late Sovereign, have now alone the Rightful and Undoubted Title to the Imperial Crown of these Realms, which receives a new Lustre by Your Majesty's happy Accession to it.

Out of a deep Sense of these Things, and in Obedience to the Just and Wholsome Laws of the Realm, and in a conscientious Regard to our repeated Oaths, we most humbly presume to assure Your Majesty, That as our own Studies and Endeavours shall always be employ'd in the Defence of Your Majesty's Sacred Person and Government, and Your Just and Rightful Title to our Allegiance against the Pretender, and all other Your Majesty's Enemies and Opposers whatsoever: So shall it be likewise our especial Care, that all those who are Educated amongst us, be instructed in the same true Principles of Loyalty and Duty to Your Majesty.

May that good God, by whom Kings Reign, ever Protect Your Sacred Person from all secret Attempts and open Violence! May he Direct, Bless, and Prosper all Your Counsels to His Glory, the Honour of Your Majesty, and the Welfare of Your People! May Your Life be long, and Your Reign happy! And when he shall please to exchange this Your Earthly Crown for a Crown of Glory, may you be succeeded by Princes of the like Consummate Wisdom and Goodness in Your most Illustrious Family, till Time shall be no more!

To which Address His Majesty was pleas'd to return the following most Gracious Answer.

I Thank you for the very Dutiful and Affectionate Expressions in your Address, especially, That wherein you assure Me of your Endeavours to Cultivate, and particularly to Instruct the Youth in Principles of Loyalty and Duty to My Government.

You may depend on a suitable Return from Me, and that I will not fall short of any of My Predecessors in My Zeal for the Church of England, and Protection of your particular Privileges.

The following Address was Presented to His Majesty, by his Grace the Lord Arch-Bishop of York.

To His Most Excellent Majesty GEORGE, by the Grace of GOD, King of Great Britain, France and Ireland, Defender of the Faith, &c.

The humble Address of the Arch-Bishop, Dean, Chapter and Clergy of the City of York.

WE Your Majesty's most Dutiful and Loyal Subjects the Arch-Bishop, Dean and Chapter and Clergy of the City of York, tho' truly sensible of the Loss we have sustained by the Demise of our late Sovereign Queen Anne of Blessed Memory, do humbly beg leave most Joyfully to Congratulate Your Majesty's Happy and Peaceable Accession to Your Throne, with Hearts full of Loyalty and Duty, and the most zealous and firm Resolutions of doing every thing in our Stations which may become a People bound to Your Majesty by the most sacred Ties of Conscience, as well as those of Interest and Affection.

The Prospect we have of the Security of our Religion, our Laws and Liberties, and of the Honour and Prosperity of Your Kingdoms, by God Almighty's having plated Your Majesty over us, it made much more affecting by the Apprehensions we some time lay under (from the Power of our Enemies) of being deprived of these the most invaluable of all Earthly Blessings. And the number of Your Majesty's Issue (which we pray God still to encrease, and make them Heirs of Your Vertues as well as Your Dominions) gives us such Assurance of the uninterruped Continuance of these Blessings, as must put an End to whatever Hopes any of our Enemies might have conceived.

May God Almighty long preserve Your Majesty, and Bless You with all Blessings Spiritual and Temporal. May Your Royal Issue, and all who proceed from them, be ever Prosperous and Happy: And may all Your Subjects be ever truly Thankful to Almighty God for these Blessings, and always shew themselves so by an inflexible Loyalty to Your Majesty.

The following Address was presented to His Majesty by the Lord Bishop of London, being introduced by the Right Hon. the Lord Viscount Townshend, One of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State.

To the KING's most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Bishop and Clergy of the Cities of London and Westminster.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE Your Majesty's most Loyal and Dutiful Subjects, the Bishop and Clergy of the Cities of London and Westminster, after having render'd our unfeign'd Thanksgivings to Almighty GOD for Your Majesty's happy and peaceful Accession to the Throne of these Kingdoms, do humbly crave Leave to Congratulate Your Majesty's safe Arrival, accompany'd with His Royal Highness the Prince.

With joyful Hearts we consider the Eminent Proofs the World has seen of Your Majesty's high Wisdom and Justice, of Your Care of Religion in Your Native Country, Your Conduct and happy Successes in War, and Your unwearied Application to the Arts of Peace, for the general Good of Your People. And as we look upon these truly Royal Virtues to be so many Guarrantees, under GOD, of the future Felicity of this Church and Nation; so we accordingly, as in Duty bound, daily offer up our Prayers to GOD, that we may enjoy these Blessings in Your Majesty's Person for many Years, and in Your Posterity for all future Ages.

The constant and steddy Loyalty that has hitherto recommended the Church of England, and the Clergy of these great Cities in particular, to Your Majesty's Royal Predecessors, will, we humbly trust, render our Church and its Ministers proper Objects of Your Majesty's Gracious Care; and we cannot therefore doubt, but that Your Majesty's Zeal for the Glory of GOD, and the Eternal Happiness of this great People committed to Your Government, will move You to pursue those Pious Methods, in which Your immediate Predecessor (of ever Blessed Memory) has gone so far; and to perfect the Distribution of Her Bounty to the Poor Clergy, the Provisions for the more convenient Worship of GOD in and

and about these Cities, the Propagation of the Gospel in Foreign Parts and the Care of the Protestant Interest abroad, with what more Your Majesty in Your great Wisdom may find needful for maintaining the true Doctrine, Worship, and Discipline of this Church, and for promoting the Honour of GOD, and the universal Good of Your People.

To which Address His Majesty was pleas'd to return the following most Gracious Answer.

I Thank You for the dutiful Expressions in Your Address, of your Loyalty and Zeal for My Government.

The late Queen's Bounty to the Poor Clergy, the Intended Erection of the New Churches, the Propagation of the Gospel in Foreign Parts, and the Protestant Interest Abroad, which you so particularly recommend to Me, shall, with every thing else that may tend to Support the Church of England, find all the Encouragement I can give.

The following Addresses were presented to His Majesty by Sir Samuel Stanier, Lord Mayor of the City of London, being introduced by his Grace the Duke of Argyle.

To the KING's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Lord Mayor, Aldermen and Commons of Your Majesty's City of London, in Common Council assembled.

PArdon us, Dread Sovereign, if we want Words to express that Height of Joy and Satisfaction, which so sensibly affect us, Your most Dutiful and Loyal Subjects, to see Your Majesty (attended by the Prince) arrived in Safety at this Your Royal Palace.

We rest now secure of enjoying all the Blessings that a Wise and Gracious Prince can derive to an Obedient and Willing People, and the Continuance of them to our Posterity by a certain (tho' we hope a late) Succession in Your Royal Family.

We crave Leave therefore, most Gracious Sovereign, to renew our Assurances of all that steady Affection to Your Sacred Person, and Zeal for the Support of Your Crown, which such a King may justly expect from the most Loyal and Faithful Subjects.

To the KING's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Lord Mayor, and the rest of Your Majesty's Commissioners of Lieutenancy for Your City of London.

Great SIR,

WE are highly sensible of the Honour done us by Your Sacred Majesty, in permitting us to appear in Your Royal Presence, and humbly beg leave to Congratulate Your Majesty on Your safe Arrival in this Your Kingdom of Great Britain.

The many Princely Virtues with which Your Majesty is most Eminently Endow'd, give us just Assurances of our being under Your Majesty's Sovereignty a Happy and Flourishing People, and that Your Majesty's Reign will be as truly Glorious, as the greatest of Your Royal Predecessors.

We humbly assure Your Majesty, That we shall always render that grateful Tribute of Loyalty and Obedience, which our Mother, The Church of England, hath taught us to pay to our Sovereign, and that we will on all Occasions demonstrate our Principles by our Practice, for the Support and Defence of Your Majesty's Royal Person, against the Pretender, and all others that shall attempt to Subvert our happy Constitution in Church or State, or lessen the Royal Prerogatives of the Imperial Crown of this Realm, which we pray Your Majesty may live long to Ware with the utmost Prosperity and Renown.

His Majesty's most Gracious Answer to the said Addresses.

I Take these Addresses very kindly. I have been lately made sensible of what great Consequence the City of London is; and therefore shall be sure to take all their Privilege and Interest into my particular Protection.

All which Addreſſes his Majeſty received very graciouſly.

Warſaw, September 16. N. S. King Auguſtus is expected here in a few Days from Reizen, and great Preparations are making for his Majeſty's Reception. The Biſhoprick of Kiovia hath been conferred upon Monſieur Arczembesk, and that of Caminiec upon Monſieur Fredro, Secretary of the Crown. Prince Czartorinski is gone to Wilna, in order to confer with Monſieur Bockzay, General of the Army of Lithuania. We are aſſured, that the Saxon Troops in this Kingdom, are to return very ſoon into their own Country, part through Sileſia, and part through Pruſſian Pomerania. The Scarcity of Proviſions continues ſtill in ſeveral Provinces, and the People ſuffer great hardſhips upon that Account. They write from the Frontiers of Volhinia, that General Roenne was encamped near the Town of Kiovia with a conſiderable Body of Muſcovite Troops, and Mareſchal Czeremetoff was likewiſe expected there with another Detachment. We have receiv'd an Expreſs from the Great General of the Crown, with an
